CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE For UN Vesak Day 2019

Lord Buddha, the son of Nepal, Light of the World and benefactor of mankind taught the way of life to live in peace and happiness. Vesak is very special day to celebrate the Birth, Enlightenment and Mahaparinibbana day of Lord Buddha. The teachings of the Buddha directs the way to eliminate suffering and has become even more pertinent in the present-days.

We do believe that the 16th UNITED NATIONS VESAK CELEBRATION DAY in Vietnam serves as an excellent platform to celebrate the togetherness of the religions and also the Academic Conference on the theme regarding “Buddhist Approach to Global Leadership and Shared Responsibilities for Sustainable Societies” encourages the devotee to spread the teaching of Buddha. We praise the effort of organizing committee for contributing your huge effort to disseminate the teachings of Lord Buddha to the world. It is a step to the right direction to uphold the human values.

On behalf of All Nepal Bhikkhu Association and Nepalese Buddhists, I would like to wish the grand success on the occasion of 16th UNITED NATIONS DAY OF VESAK CELEBRATION 2019 in Vietnam, from the pious land where Lord Buddha was born. May this outstanding event offer a valuable contribution to the consolidation of friendship, solidarity and harmony among all Buddhist!

May all sentient beings be free from the suffering! May all being be happy from this meritorious deeds!

“CHIRAM TITTHATU SADDHAMMO.”

With the blessing of the Noble Triple Gem!
